

From having legs hacked off to getting RS foothold: A Master's journey of grit

PM Nominates RSS Votary Who Lost Both Limbs In '94 CPM Attack

Dhruv Karatimesofindia.com

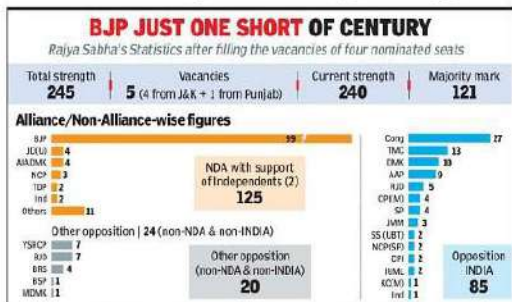

New Delhi: It was May 2006. Speaking at a rally in Kasaragod, Prime Minister Narendra Modi held up the bandaged leg of Sadanandan Master as he lamented the silence imposed on the story of the victim of barbaric police violence. Coming from a family of hardcore CPM members, the 30-year-old school teacher was influenced by the writings of poet Akkitham and turned into a votary of RSS's philosophy of cultural nationalism. He was dubbed a traitor by his comrades, who punished the defection by hacking off both his legs in 1994. The limbs were mutilated so that they could not be rejoined. The PM broadcast the story on Sunday that he complained about nine years ago by announcing Sadanandan Master's nomination to Rajya Sabha—a move that licks of members and sympathisers of RSS would applaud.

For if the atrocity was meant to intimidate him into submission, the attackers failed miserably. Sadanandan, popularly known as 'Master of Marathi', who is now dependent on his prosthetic legs, did not let the gruesome attack deter him from taking on the powerful CPM in their stronghold of Kannur and elsewhere, and propagating Hindutva. Importantly, he has been using against the use of violence to settle political and ideological disagreements. If the recognition of Sadanandan Master helps explain his enduring appeal among his supporters, RSS, the PM gave them another reason to celebrate on Sunday: the nomination of historian Meenakshi Jain. Part of the rare breed that challenged the dominant left historiography, Jain had to endure resistance and ridicule in academic circles. She, however, earned the admiration of Hindutva circles by detailing the destruction of temples in the medieval period, a taboo area for 'mainstream' historians. Her books—"Light of Deities and Rebirth of Temples", "The Battle for Rama Case of the Temple at Ayodhya", and "Rama and Ayodhya"—are evidence of the tenacity with which she pursued her passion.

Ujjwal Nikam, the Mumbai lawyer who successfully argued for death penalty for Ajmal Kasab, of an infamy and had earlier argued the 1993 Mumbai serial bomb blasts case, is not known for his links with RSS. Yet, his nomination appears to be part of Modi rewarding those who turn out to be symbols of the cause.

Ditto for Harsh Vardhan Shringla, the career diplomat who served as foreign secretary under Modi. He was seen as BJP's choice for the Darjeeling LS sent in the 2024 Lok Sabha elections before the leadership deferred to the in-house wisdom that the incumbent be retained. The PM may have gone along with the majority view, but did not let the former ambassador slip off his radar. A Leftist-turned-RSS Lakshykartha, Sadanandan Master's life has been one of sacrifice and a symbol of resilience and unwavering public service in the face of a brutal political attack on him in 1991 in Kannur. For 31 years, Sadanandan Master has been living with these scars when CPM workers severed both his legs, mutilated them on the surface of the road so that he couldn't undergo limb replantation and left him writhing in pain.

The brutal attack didn't deter Sadanandan Master as he returned to his teaching job and social service on prosthetic legs. He has consistently spoken out against political violence, especially in Kannur, and has advocated peace and dialogue.

"The psychology of violence is that of action and reaction. I am a victim of political violence, and I have always maintained that in my individual capacity I am willing to take on any role to end this violence," he said to TOI in 2016.

Sadanandan Master unsuccessfully contested the 2016 and 2021 assembly elections in Kerala on a BJP ticket from the Kothuparamba constituency in Kannur district. Currently he is the vice president of BJP's Kerala unit.

'Hindi or Marathi?' Nikam recalls chat with Modi

TIMES NEWS NETWORK

Mumbai: "PM Marathi Bolta, hi Hindi (Should I speak in Marathi or Hindi)," Prime Minister Narendra Modi asked Ujjwal Nikam on Saturday evening before telling the advocate in Marathi about his nomination to the Rajya Sabha.

"I laughed a little but he laughed heartily," Nikam, the special public prosecutor in the 1993 Mumbai blasts and 26/11 terror attack cases, told TOI. "I told the PM that he was proficient in both languages and could speak in either, his choices. He spoke to me in Marathi and told me he was conveying the President's wishes to nominate me as Rajya Sabha member of Parliament to serve the people."

Nikam recalled what the PM said. "President wants to assign a responsibility to

you. Can you take the responsibility? I said I let me know what responsibility to which he replied that the President has taken a decision to nominate you to the Rajya Sabha so you can use your power for the country and Constitution. I readily said yes," Nikam said.

Nikam was awarded the Padma Shri in 2016 and was BJP's candidate for the 2024 Lok Sabha elections from Mumbai North Central. He lost to Congress's Varsha Gaikwad. "I never felt that losing the election was a setback as a special public prosecutor in several leading cases," said Nikam, adding his dedication to public cause would now continue with the faith reposed in him by the President, PM, Union home minister Amit Shah and Maharashtra chief minister Devendra Fadnis.

India in grip of silent salt consumption epidemic: ICMR-NIE

Studies show that urban Indians consume around 5.2 grams/day, and even rural areas, it is around 5.5 grams/day—both higher than recommended

New Delhi: Excessive salt consumption is fuelling a silent epidemic in India with people at increased risk of hypertension, stroke, heart disease, and kidney disorders, according to scientists from ICMR's National Institute of Epidemiology. The scientists have initiated a community-led salt reduction drive to address the issue and are focusing on low-sodium salt substitutes.

While the World Health Organisation recommends less than 5 grams of salt per person per day, studies show that urban Indians consume around 5.2 grams/day, and even in rural areas, it is around 5.5 grams/day—both higher than recommended. One promising tool in this effort is low-sodium salt substitutes—blends where part of the sodium chloride is replaced with potassium or magnesium salts. Dr Sharan Murali, a senior scientist at National Institute of Epidemiology (NIE) and principal investigator at the study, said, "Lower sodium consumption helps reduce blood pressure and improves overall heart health, making low-sodium alternatives a meaningful switch, especially for those with hypertension," Dr Murali said.

"Just switching to low-sodium salt can lower blood pressure by 7/4 mmHg on average, a small change with a big impact," Dr Murali said. "To tackle the issue of high salt consumption, the NIE has launched a three-year intervention project in Punjab and Telangana, supported by the Indian Council of Medical Research. The goal is to evaluate the effectiveness of structured salt reduction counselling in reducing blood pressure and sodium intake among individuals with hypertension, senior scientist at NIE, Dr Ganesh Kumar, who is also part of the study said.

Uddhav Sena's men trace & assault autowala over Marathi

Vishal Rajenhadki/TNN

Vasai: Days after a video showing an autorickshaw driver's refusal to converse in Marathi had gone viral, the driver was traced and assaulted by a group of men, allegedly from Shiv Sena (U), Saturday afternoon. A case of rioting has been filed against at least eight people. The autorickshaw driver, Raju Patwa, who piles his vehicle from Vasai (east) autorickshaw stand, had in the viral video defiantly said that he would speak only Bhojpuri and Hindi, and would not speak Marathi.

The video went viral the day Maharashtra Navin Sena was to hold a rally in Mira Road last week.

On Saturday, not only was the autorickshaw driver assaulted but he was also forced to apologise to a passenger to whom he had refused to speak Marathi. In a fresh video of Saturday, the rickshaw driver is seen apologising for his hands joined, while a group of men rain blows on him.

Last week, the passenger, identified only as Bhavesh, was on his way to Vasai station to drop off a relative when an autorickshaw brushed past him. Bhavesh told the driver in Marathi to be careful. The rickshaw driver

The autorickshaw driver was not only assaulted but also forced to apologise to a passenger with whom he had refused to speak in Marathi er responded in Hindi, saying he would "not speak Marathi" but would converse only in Hindi.

Shiv Sena (U) leader from Vasai Viraj Uday Jadhav, who allegedly led the assault with his men, said that they had been scouting for the autorickshaw driver over the past week since the video had gone viral. "He has three-speak Marathi language (in the video). We have now taught him a lesson... Anyone who disrespects the Marathi language will be taught a lesson in this manner."

Senior inspector of Vasai police station, Lalit Tare, said eight or nine have been booked for rioting and assault.

Uddhav-Raj alliance not sealed yet: UBT's Raut

Mumbai: Shiv Sena (UBT) PM Sanjay Raut on Sunday said that even though NNS chief Raj Thackeray and Sena (U) chief Uddhav Thackeray came together against opposition of Hindi, their political alliance was not sealed yet. Raut said it was necessary for this alliance to forge and now there should be no confusion, reports Chaitanya Marapkar.

Raut also said that one day Raj would come forward and clear the air on his high tech meetings with Devendra Fadnis and Eknath Shinde. Raut made the comments in his weekly column in Saamna. Political analysts said through his column, Raut was clearly making it clear that he must stay true to the Thackeray reunion and announce a formal alliance without allowing confusion to creep in.

"Raut is also pressing for a formal alliance between the two cousins and telling Raj that the slow response from him was creating confusion," a political observer said.

Amid assessment reports 'scam', med regulator gets a new chief

New Delhi: The govt has appointed Dr Abhishek Sheth as the new chairperson of the National Medical Commission (NMC), the apex body for regulating medical education in the country, reports Dr B N Gangadhar Nandanji.

He will be replacing Dr B N Gangadhar who offered to relinquish the post several months ago owing to health concerns. Sources said the govt had asked Dr Gangadhar to continue until a new appointment was made.

Dr Sheth, whose appointment has been notified served as president of the National Board of Examination in Medical Sciences that conducted NEET-PG exams before this.

Dr Sheth's appointment comes amid allegations of corruption in assessment reports submitted for medical colleges.

Cong MLC's gunman 'fires' as supporters of Kavitha storm office

TIMES NEWS NETWORK

Hyderabad: Congress MLC Chintapanda Narayan Kumar's gunman, allegedly opened fire BRS MLC K Kavitha's Telangana Jagruti member after they stormed Kumar's office on Sunday following his remark that Kavitha was an upper caste. He had no right to speak about the 42% BC quota introduced by the govt in Telangana.

Though no one was hurt in the firing, some of Kavitha's supporters sustained bleeding injuries from shattered glass panes.

Kumar, popularly known as Teenmar Mallanna, said he also suffered a minor injury in his finger.

Mallanna's team filed a police complaint, alleging that the mob barged into the first floor of the QNews office — a YouTube channel run by him — between 11 am and 11.30 am in Medipally.

BRS neta takes fight to ethics panel

BRS MLC K Kavitha on Sunday filed a formal complaint through a letter addressed to Telangana legislative council chairman Ojha Sankhdev Reddy, requesting that the matter be referred to the Committee on Ethics. "As a public representative and a member of the honourable legislature, such comments by Mallanna have severely shocked me, have been advocating for two years that reservations should be provided to BCs, who constitute more than half of the country's population, based on their population proportion," Kavitha wrote.

Several people including Kavitha, were booked on charges of attempted murder, rioting, trespassing, and criminal intimidation.
